Alice Springs Town Council welcomes the appointment of Joe McCabe to the role of interim CEO of ASTC.

Mr McCabe comes to Alice Springs with a wealth of experience in local government, most recently serving as the Chief Operating Officer for City of Gold Coast between 2012-2022. During that time Mr McCabe also acted as CEO for 11 months.

“It’s extremely exciting to welcome Joe into the role as interim CEO. He has a wealth of experience at a senior executive level in local government and will be a tremendous asset for Council,” Mayor Matt Paterson said.

“I am looking forward to welcoming Joe on board and working closely with him, along with Elected Members, to achieve wonderful things for the Alice Springs community.”

With a strong background in economic sustainability, budgeting and staff development, Mr McCabe will serve as an interim CEO while Alice Springs Town Council conducts a thorough recruitment process to fill the role full time.

“Joining Alice Springs Town Council is a fantastic opportunity and I look forward to working with both the Elected Members and staff,” Mr McCabe said.

Mr McCabe will commence in the role from today, Monday 13 February and will continue until a full time CEO is appointed.
