

Nicole Battle starts as Director Community Development

Monday, 27 July 2022

Alice Springs Town Council is pleased to announce the commencement of Nicole Battle in the role of Director Community Development.

“Nicole comes to us with a wealth of knowledge, having had over a decade of experience working in local governments across Australia and held a number of positions in the not-for-profit sector,” CEO Robert Jennings said.

“We are thrilled to welcome Nicole to Alice Springs Town Council and believe her appointment will significantly assist us in our goal of serving the community.”

Ms. Battle comes to Council from her most recent role as Chief Executive Officer of Neighbourhood Houses Victoria and has spent time at Wyndham City Council, Hobsons Bay City Council and Moonee Valley City Council in a variety of roles. She also has a range of experience working in the not-for-profit sector, with a strong focus of community support and development.

“I am incredibly excited to be joining the team at Alice Springs Town Council,” Ms. Battle said.

“Whilst relatively new to Alice, I have already been impressed by the warmth of the people and the strong sense of community. I look forward to being able to serve Council and the people of Alice Springs to take our town from strength to strength”.

Ms. Battle began in the role on Monday 20 July.
