6. DEPUTATIONS:

6.1 Youth Services - Larissa Ellis, Department of Children and Families

Ms Larissa Ellis from the Department of Children and Families gave the following update on Youth Street Outreach Service (YSOS) and Youth Hub:

- YSOS has been scaled down but there is an opportunity to bring back the service if required.
- Workers from YSOS have been amalgamated into the Child Protection Services
- Youth Hub will be closed so all of the youth services that are currently operating under the Youth Hub have been found more appropriate accommodations elsewhere.
- The Alternative Education Centre is the only youth services that will continue running under the Youth Hub.
- Summer holiday services will be run by other agencies e.g. the Department of Chief Minister and NT Police. The Council has a role to play in this as well.
- Coordination of Youth Services – existing funding around youth services and activities are staying the same and will not be affected by the closure of YSOS and Youth Hub.
- The decision to close the Youth Hub was made because the purpose has never been fully realised. Costing was a fortune to continue running it.
- Most of the new services are being located in Anangu House.

Some questions were asked by Elected Members in relation to children/youth services which Ms Ellis addressed.

The Chairperson thanked Ms Ellis for her presentation.

9.4 Update on Website and Social Media Development
Report No. 29/14ccs (MCO)

Following approval from Council, a part-time 3-day-per-week media and communications assistant was employed by Council during the development phase of the new Council website and social media platforms.

As stated by Councillors, social media and website development is fundamental to the operation of Council business and all social media should refer back to the website. To this end, a new website is being developed, the first draft of which will be ready to be populated by mid-February, then tested on frequent users within Council staff as well as community users before going live. Social media channels, training and risk management systems will be in place and ready to go live at the same time.

The Media and Communications Officer was asked by the CEO to prepare a report to update elected members on developments.

RESOLVED
That it be a recommendation to Council:

That this report be noted.

11. GENERAL BUSINESS:

11. Mayor Ryan – Motivational Program for Teenagers - Champion Edge

Mayor Ryan put forward a proposal regarding an opportunity for Alice Springs to become engage in motivational program for teenagers called Champion Edge.

Champion Edge, supported by great Australian athletes Mark Webber and Patrick Rafter along with Brennon Dowrick, is a new motivation and education program with a focus on health & fitness for 13-16 year old Australians developed by leading educators, health and fitness experts and motivators and is designed to inspire teenagers to find their own formula for success in life through motivational seminars, social media community, physical challenge events and an online learning tool.

On March 11 Formula 1 superstar Mark Webber will launch the Champion Edge program with a track run around the Albert Park Street Circuit, where students aged 13 to 18 years old are invited to come and run the 5 km circuit with Mark Webber.

Mayor Ryan is keen for Council to secure one of the 2 regional functions which would include:
- Advertisement of the event in Alice to teachers and principals
- Venue
- Support transport of students
- Provide P/A and A/V system to present event
- Preference to run event between 31 March and 5 April

Mayor Ryan will start preparation if Council supports the proposal.

RESOLVED:
That it be a recommendation to Council:

That Council supports the Champion Edge program by holding a motivational event for teenagers in Alice Springs between 31 March and 5 April 2014.
